Bull Run

BY A FIRE ZOUAVE

Oh, it's all very well for you fellers
That don't know a fire from the sun
To curl up our moustaches, and tell us
Just how the thing oughter been done,
But when twenty whacks up ninety, the usual
There's nothing can follow but rout.
We didn't give in till we had to
And what are ye coughin' about?

The crowd that was with them are rebels
Had ten to cut every man,
But a fireman's a fire man, mine yet,
And he'll put out a fire if he can
So we run the machine at a gallop,
As easy as open and shut,
And as fast as one feller went under
Another kept takin' der butt

You oughter seen Farnham that mornin —
In spite of the shot and the shell
His orders kept ringing around us
As clear as the City Hall bell
He said all he could to encourage
And lighten the hearts of the men
Until he was bleeding and wounded
And nearly dried up on it then

While two rifle regiments fought us,
And batteries tumbled us down,
Them cursed Black Horse fellers charged us,
Like all the Dead Rabbits in town
And that's just the way with them rebels—
It's ten upon one or no fair
But we emptied a few of their saddles—
You may bet all your soap on that air

"Double up!" says our Colonel quite cooly
When he saw them come riding like mad,
And we did double up in a hurry,
And let them have all that we had,
They came at us counting a hundred,
And scarcely two dozen went back
So you see, if they bluffed us on aces
We made a big thing with the Jack

We fought till red shirts were as plenty
As blackberries, strewing the grass
And then we fell back for a breathing
To let Sixty Nine's fellers pass.
Perhaps Sixty Nine didn't peg them,
And give them uncommon cheroots?
Well—I've just got to say if they didn't
You fellers can smell of my boots!

The Brooklyn Fourteenth was another
And them Minnesota chaps, too,
But the odds were too heavy against us,
And but one thing was left us to do
We had to make tracks for our quarters,
And finished it up pretty rough
But if any chap says that they licked us
I'd just like to polish him off!

Details of Eastern News.

WASHINGTON, August 18th.—A lady arrived here from Richmond, via Louisville, says that workmen are engaged at Richmond manufacturing tanks for the conveyance of water to the rebels at Manassas, and for keeping the water brought to that point

Dr. Stewart, Surgeon of the First Maine Regiment, has arrived with other prisoners released on parole They report that twenty three other members of the regiment are at Richmond, and nearly all wounded, but doing well Many of our soldiers reported killed are prisoners There are twenty two other wounded Federal soldiers at Sudley Church recovering Lieutenant Welch of Minnesota, reported dead, was well enough to be out at Richmond Dr Stewart reported that the rebel soldiers are tired of fighting

LOUISVILLE August 13 —TENNESSEE ELECTION—The majority for the Confederate Constitution is 52,000 For Governor, Harris about 40,000 In the First District, Nelson is elected to both the Federal and Confederate Congress, by a large majority In the Third District, Welcker received 17,062 votes and Briggs 5 970 votes for Confederate Congress, and the latter 2,045 for Federal Congress

WASHINGTON, August 2d —Information is received that General Fremont was going to give General Sigel all the aid in his power, on the order of the War Department. Forces from Ohio, Indiana and Illinois are undoubtedly in Missouri to reinforce General Sigel.

Two of the released surgeons agree that our wounded are well cared for, with good air and good food, but somewhat crowded accommodations They deny that our wounded were bayoneted or our hospitals shelled One of Beauregard's Aids told them that but 15,000 men were engaged on their side, and confessed that if their soldiers had been aware that they were whipped along the whole line, they would have fled; but what buoyed them up, and dispirited us, was that Johnston was coming with 15,000 men

The Times's dispatch says General Anderson though advised by a physician to refrain from active duty, has nevertheless determined at once to take the field When warned that he might break down, he answered that the Union men of Kentucky were calling him to lead them, and that he must and could make the attempt, and if he failed he would fall in a most glorious cause.

Judge Garrison of Brooklyn issued a writ of habeas corpus, on application of Jackson, in behalf of about one hundred and fifty United States troops at Fort Hamilton, surrendered by Gen Twiggs, and released upon parole Their counsel has written to the Secretary of War, requesting that the Government allow the execution of the writ, as it will save the necessity of even indirectly recognizing the legality of the obligation which was imposed on the men by the rebels

A special to the New York Evening Post says it is reported that evidence has been discovered showing when Jeff Davis resigned his seat in the United States Senate, he made out a list of men who were to be made officers in the rebel army

Passes are now required on all roads leading to Washington

Thirty thousand letters for our troops are received daily

WASHINGTON, August 15th.—The most reliable information concerning the disunionists is, that they are slowly moving their forces to the line of the Potomac in force, certain of their programme to enter Maryland, and encourage and support the revolutionary spirit in that State, with ultimate designs on Washington

ST LOUIS, Aug. 15.—It is stated that some seven thousand rebel troops are approaching Ironton from the South The Federal troops in that region are strongly posted

Gen Wise, on the 7th, was reported to be at White Sulphur Springs, and Gen Floyd at Sweet Springs, sixteen miles distant, ready for a union with Wise.

General Twiggs has undertaken works for the defense of New Orleans. The Delta says the city council has placed $100,000 at his disposal

The rebel Congress has extended its military jurisdiction over Delaware and Maryland, and are endeavoring to raise regiments in those States

General Sumner has officially informed Flag Officer Montgomery, also the Government, of a report that Colonel Van Dorn of the Confederate army, has been seen with 1,800 troops on the road between El Paso and San Antonio, from which it is believed an attempt will be made to subjugate Lower California

Colonel Farnham of the Fire Zouaves, died this evening, of wounds received in the late battle.

NEW YORK, Aug. 14th —The returned Fire Zouaves had a fine reception from the firemen

A Washington dispatch reports that Gen Sickles is appointed by General Scott to command the eastern shore of the Potomac, four miles below Washington

Robert Muir of Charleston, and cousin of the British Consul at New Orleans, was arrested on board of the steamer Africa just as she was leaving, charged with being the bearer of dispatches from Jeff Davis to the British Government Several papers were found on him showing him to be such a person

We are for the Union!

The sanctions of popular opinion draw out of many mouths the above words, while the bitterness of the heart makes them in too many cases, we fear, practically false. "We are for the Union, but we are also for peace." "We want the country safe, but we are opposed to this fratricidal war," say they. Now, the greater number of those who are "for the Union" with the "but," might as well say what they mean as to act it—they might as well proceed with their discourse and reveal their whole heart, for it requires but half an eye, if kept steadily upon them to see through them. These men act *dis*union while saying union. They find apologies and ample excuses for secession ordinances—they justify the irregularity, violence, lawlessness and war of the men now in arms against the Government—or are silent about all these. No violation of the constitution, however palpable and gross—no defiance of the laws of the Union, however open and wilful—no insults to their national flag, however flagrant—no menaces of the national government, however insolent, are denounced by these men. Hang up a man, or a dozen men—American citizens—sons of the revolutionary fathers, without jury or trial—for no earthly offense but a love for that government for which their fathers bled and died—and these "for the Union" fellows have nothing to say. Seize a man's private papers—rifle the mail bags to get hold of his correspondence—look into key holes, and go eaves-dropping about his premises to find some evidence of devotion to that flag that the whole world has looked upon as the emblem of human liberty—and these same "Union men" are still silent, and see nothing wrong or improper. Raise armies and seize forts and national fortifications, and do all that men can do to destroy the national capital, and to make a conquest of the free North—and the "for the Union, but" men are glad of it. Send out upon the high seas the most abandoned of our race, mere thieves and robbers with license to steal, and rob, and murder—to enact all the abominations of piracy—and what mention of the atrocities that follow do these great Union lovers ever make but with half concealed approbation? And when aggressive war has raised its front at the very doors of the Capitol, and the regularly constituted authorities of the land have merely done what necessity dictated and the law required to save the government and preserve liberty—to put down treason in its acts and words and spirit—these dear "for the Union" men are shocked at the unconstitutional proceedings, not of the aggressors, but of the defenders! What an alarming stretch of authority to defend your house against robbers and incendiaries! These fellows say not a word to justify and encourage—but say all they know and repeat all they hear to condemn and embarrass the government—they have no joy at the successes of the national arms—but on the contrary, make such the occasion of bawling about the "fratricidal war"—they have no regret for the reverses of the Union cause, unless it be that they are not greater.

Gen. Jackson in that celebrated letter to Rev. A. J. Crawford, in 1833, said—"keep watch of the nullifiers, they are among you"—"their real object is disunion." That iron man knew no half or divided devotion to the Union. He would tolerate no "buts" or conditions. We may profit by his advice, example and spirit, and "keep watch" of every "for the Union but" man among us, being assured that if he uttered his whole heart, he would say—"Live Jeff Davis!"—"Death to Lincoln!"

Letters from the Nez Perces Country

No. 3.

Elk City, W. T., Aug. 17, 1861.

Since my last letter from this locality there has been a large influx of people from Oro Fino which, with the current of immigration from the west this way, has trebled the population of the southern mines, as we call these diggings. One thousand men at least are within twenty miles of this point, and large parties are arriving daily. Elk City has increased in size from three brush shanties to twenty substantial log houses in the space of two weeks. The scarcity of food, mentioned in my last, is no longer felt. We luxuriate on beef and bread, on potatoes and onions—bought of the Nez Perces—on ham, and coffee with sugar in it. We also eat from plates which are regularly washed, and have knives and forks. We have no tables yet, but these must come with the march of civilization. The increase of bodily comforts, of facilities for working the diggings, and the constantly accumulating evidences of the richness and extent of these mines, have, taken altogether, induced many miners to remain who at first were quite discouraged by the hardships with which they were confronted, and the total lack of means to work to a profit even the richest discoveries.

BUSINESS AT ELK CITY.

The trade at Elk City has been conducted, so far as I know, on the cash principle, or the security of good names and claims. At the outset there was some little money brought in by the Oro Fino miners who "rushed" here, but, the proportion of cash to the man was totally inadequate to pay the expense of opening mining claims. As there were no traders in this part of the country at the time, and no man could be found to invest in supplies and materials and take the chances for a long time things moved slowly. The first firm that determined to take these chances in here was John Creighton & Co., and for the accommodating spirit displayed by its members, and from the fact that it is the only house in these parts that has refused to deal in alcoholic beverages, deserves the gratitude of the miners and to share in the harvest of gold which will surely be gathered in this district. The sale of liquors is indeed a nuisance. There are those who say that to sell liquor to Indians is a grave offense, but I am persuaded that it is not a greater sin than to sell it to white men. This I do know—white men are about twice as bad as Indians when they are drunk on this Awful Whiskey up here, and the probable effects of their drunkenness equally as disastrous. The proportion of shoot-off-the-top-of-your-head gentlemen here is large, and they, when drunk, noisy and dangerous, but at other times very "shady" and retiring.

ELK VALLEY AND CITY.

Elk Valley or Prairie is seven miles long, running from north to south, and will average about half a mile in width. The mountains on either side are low, and are covered with a growth of small pines. From these ridges flat ravines come down at intervals, and almost without exception they are grassy savannas, generally watered by living springs. The City stands about a mile from the lower end of the Prairie, and is built on a low flat point, with one of the flat open ravines mentioned above on each side. The view up and down the valley includes a large portion of the Prairie, and to the west the mountains rise ridge above ridge towards the great divide of the Bitter Root range, which we cross to get in here. The creek runs to the west side of the town—the grass grows up to its banks, and only a clump of willows at long intervals is to be met with on the water's edge.

Some speculative geniuses have discovered many other more eligible locations for towns up here, but somehow people are unwilling to settle in them. In fact, Elk City is conveniently located for trade, and already the improvements are of such a character as to guarantee its permanence. After having seen something of the country around here, I do not know a more convenient place from which to distribute supplies.

IMMIGRANTS FROM TEXAS.—Seven hundred wagons are reported to be on the way between San Bernardino and Los Angeles. They represent that the condition of Texas since her secession from the Union, is of a very deplorable character.

Chas. E. Olney, of Gold Hill, Nevada Territory, was nominated by the Union men as their candidate for Congress, August 20th.

The first emigrant wagon this season arrived at Yreka on the 2[illegible] ult. It left Iowa April 16th.

Oregon's apportionment of the Direct Tax is $35,140 66⅔; Washington Territory, $1,725 33⅓. So reads the law.

England and the United States

The Advertiser of the 30th devoted a column to the above subject. Long quotations were made from the London Star and London Times, the organs of English aristocracy, and a studied effort was made by the Advertiser to induce the belief that the English Nation is, like the secession clique in Oregon, in sympathy with the great rebellion, and desires that it may succeed. But the people will remember that the organs of the [illegible] and of the aristocracy are not the controlling organs of public opinion in Great Britain. Under the head of "We want, what for nobody," the London Star of July [illegible] utters more nearly the sentiments of the great English people and ultimately of the Government itself than any of the papers which the Secession press so far [illegible] adopt. The article is as follows:—

President Lincoln's message sets at rest with the simplicity of an unchangeable resolve, many idle rumors of a compromise between the so called States rights of rebellious minority and the fundamental principles of National union and National sovereignty which Washington bequeathed to the people of the United States as "sacredly obligatory on all," as "the main pillar in the edifice of real independence, the support of tranquillity at home, of peace abroad, of safety, of prosperity, of liberty itself." Is that good fabric of self-ruling freedom to remain one nation, or to be split up into as many mutually destructive dynasties as the [illegible] of rapacious minorities may establish by virtue of a pretended right of secession? Mr. Lincoln shows that the malignant fallacy of the chief leaders aims at nothing more or less than the destruction of the National Union. This was in fact the very fallacy against which Washington prophetically warned his fellow citizens in his farewell message. And if the National Union of 34, instead of 13 States, is now assailed by a fatal combination of intriguing factions, so much the more heinous is the crime. The message of the President plainly treats the war, which a league of partisan [illegible] has provoked, as a struggle for National existence.

It seems impossible that this plain unvarnished speech of the Republican President should not sink deep into the hearts and consciences of a people possessed of any moral sense, of any reverence for the memory of the great founders of their liberties, of any hope or interest beyond the passions of the hour. And President Lincoln bears proud and solemn witness that in truth "the plain people" know well that this "is essentially a people's contest." The secessional oligarchy deliberately press out of view the rights of men and the authority of the people. Their elections are held in military camps; their State papers are eloquent on the rights of minorities. On the side of the Union the struggle is felt to be one for maintaining a form and substance of Government under which the condition of the whole has been elevated and improved beyond example in the world. And this is now the largest army of volunteers ever known, and enlisting regiments of which every common soldier is a man of high culture and attainments, has rushed to the standards of the Union. Regular officers in the land and sea service have deserted their colors, they were the creatures of favor or of fortune; of the common soldiers and sailors not one has failed for a moment in loyalty even in the face of treacherous commanders. With such support as this President Lincoln is prepared to prove that "those who can fairly carry an election can also suppress a rebellion." There is no free people, or a people aspiring to freedom throughout the world—much less is there a people with Anglo Saxon blood in its veins—that is not concerned in the momentous issue which the President of the United States describes in the simplest words as "a great lesson of peace, teaching men that what they cannot take by an election, neither can they take by war." A lesson it should be remembered in England can be more conservative, in the best and only true sense, than this.

The American civil war then, is a question of extending the area of Slavery, of retaining the Slave trade; but it is more than all this for the New World and for the Old; it is a question, indeed, of peace, safety and prosperity, nay of national existence, to that America which the genius and goodness of a Washington created for an example. But for all free peoples it is a question of upholding the eternal principles of liberty, morality and justice. War for such a cause, though it be civil war, may perhaps without impiety be called—

BRECKINRIDGE DISGRACED.—J. C. Breckinridge and Vallandigham were entertained by the Secessionists at Baltimore August 9th, and the former attempted to speak, but was constantly interrupted by the cheers for Crittenden, General Scott, the Kentucky elections, and for the Union. Calls were also made for the "Star Spangled Banner" from the band. Vallandigham did not attempt to speak.

The British war steamer Driver was seen ashore by the North Star, on Mariguana Key, on the 3d August. She will be total loss. The crew were saving what they could from the wreck.

Two flags made in San Francisco for presentation to the Rhode Island regiments cost $1,030.

CITY.

THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—This Board met yesterday and adjourned until to-day. Present—The County Judge, President, John White, and Ellis Walker; the other members being absent at the mines. At this term the levy of the taxes for the ensuing fiscal year will be made. Some steps will also be taken relative to the roads, bridges, &c., south of town; which are almost impassable. The Commissioners are prepared to do whatever the law authorizes, but it is understood that unless private subscriptions shall be given, promptly and liberally, the same impassability must continue another winter. It is said that the road labor and taxes are not sufficient to complete the new road in the bottom between town and Terwilliger's, and that the Board is not authorized to repair or improve the bridges without private aid.

IMPROVEMENTS IN THE COURT HOUSE.—The Court Room has been overhauled, repaired, papered and cleaned up handsomely, the jury rooms made eaves dropper proof by double partitions and additional seats furnished. The old castle may do now, until the county is rich and proud enough to build one to correspond with the dignity and importance of our flourishing town and county.

The County Court was occupied on yesterday with the taking of testimony in the case of the will of Leonard McNulty, deceased, and some motions for the settlement of the estate of Carson and Northrup, deceased.

OFF FOR MALHEUR.—The Portland portion of the Malheur miners crossed the river yesterday for the rendezvous near Foster's. We do not know their number, but there were enough to ensure protection from the hostility of the Indians. Among them were one or two of our business men, and others of much experience in mining. All are well armed, and supplied with provisions for the winter. We noticed one furnished with a whip-saw, and all had rocker, irons, pans, &c. We expect to hear of good diggings and rich yields, believing that the ore is there, and we know that the country will be thoroughly prospected by this party. Success to them.

DELIVERED UP.—We are informed that the Indians at the Warm Springs Reservation have arrested five or six of the Indians concerned in the late depredations east of the mountains, and have delivered them over to the proper authorities for punishment.

THANKS.—We neglected yesterday to return thanks to Wells, Fargo & Co., for files of California papers; also, to Stratman & Co., San Francisco, for pictorials and eastern papers.

Nobody is to suffer with RHEUMATISM or GOUT when every body knows that DR. ADOLPHUS' ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL is a sure cure, without fail.

For sale by SMITH & DAVIS, Agents, Portland, and by Druggists generally.

mar1d6m DR. H. ADOLPHUS, San Francisco.

Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters.—A specific for dyspepsia, diarrhea, dysentery, general debility, chills and fever, liver complaint, billious remittent fevers, and the pains and weaknesses which creep upon us in old age. For these ailments we quietly invited a trial and a verdict. The trial has come off, the verdict has been rendered, and the Bitters are to-day the most popular remedy, for the time they have been in existence, in this or any other country. It lives and continues to thrive and increase in popularity with marvelous rapidity, simply because the world wants it, will have it, cannot do without it. The dyspeptic demands it as his only help, the victims of diarrhea or dysentery believes in it, the billious sufferer dare not let one bottle run out before he gets another. Both sexes, all ages, all classes regard it as the most wonderful invigorant ever compounded. Hence the enormous demand. Sold everywhere by Druggists, Liquor Dealers, and Grocers.

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of France, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord is an illustrious example, a shining light among the philosophical stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equalled him in this country; as a proof of which, the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary ad eundem degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert, that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

Latest from the South.

LOUISVILLE, August 12.—A passenger arrived from Richmond, passing Knoxville on Friday, reports General Zollicoffer at the head of the Tennessee troops there. They have suppressed the Parson Brownlow's Knoxville Whig.

The Louisville Bulletin publishes a letter signed W. J. Dewey, from New Orleans, addressed to his cousin, F. A. Brooker, New York, asking if he (Dewey) could get employment there, speaking disparagingly of the future prospects of New Orleans. This letter was intercepted by the military authorities at Memphis, and returned to the authorities at New Orleans, who committed Dewey, and declined taking bail for his appearance.

The Richmond Examiner, of the 8th, says the Confederate Congress on Tuesday, in considering the bill for public defence, encountered an ill-timed division of opinion. The bill does not provide for a levy, but authorizes the President to employ the militia in conformity to the Act of 16th of March last, and to accept volunteers not to exceed four hundred thousand.

The Norfolk Herald, of the 7th, says the S. P. Whitney and another Boston steamer came to Newport News on Sunday, and on Monday proceeded to sea with decks filled with troops.

The correspondent of the Richmond Despatch says that 240 negroes have been sent from Fortress Monroe to Cuba, and advocates the admission of negro testimony to show what parties stole these negroes.

The Cleveland (Tenn.) Banner, of the 9th, says, Edwards, who declared he would not swear to support the Confederate Constitution, was elected from Bradley county to the House, by 598 majority, and of the nine members in Lower East Tennessee, three are Union men. The Athens (McMinn county) Post says it is reported that several companies in that county are organized to resist the action of Tennessee becoming a member of the Southern Confederacy, and hopes the rumors are without foundation as the county threw a decided majority for the Southern Confederacy.

The New York Times of the 10th August says:

"Our correspondent on board of the sloop-of-war Brooklyn, off the mouth of the Mississippi, gives some interesting information relative to the condition of affairs at New Orleans, derived from a deserter from the rebel army who made his escape down the Mississippi. He reached the vessel in safety after considerable hardships. The city, according to his account, is in a fearful condition of terrorism, caused by the bands of cut-throat soldiers stationed there, who are in a most complete state of demoralization, and commit acts of the basest nature. Houses had been entered, families broken up, and men had been threatened with the direst vengeance unless their wants were supplied.

Provisions of every character were very scarce, and consequently very high, and many of the poorer portion of the community were suffering terribly. Notwithstanding the apparent unanimity of the people on the question of Secession, there is a strong Union element under the surface, which only awaits the proper opportunity to make itself known and terribly felt."

JOHN C. BUTTERWORTH'S CELEBRATED CHEMICAL SOFT SOAP

THE CHEAPEST, MOST ECONOMICAL, AND LABOR-saving Soap ever discovered.

PATENTED OCTOBER, 1860.

This Soap recommends itself for the following reasons: It is not only the best soap in use for the wash-tub and the toilet, but it is far the cheapest; washing is performed with half the labor required by other soaps; it removes the pitch, tar and grease from woolen and cotton goods; in a word, is the great desideratum of the age.

Put up in five and ten pound cans. Each can warranted to make sixty and one hundred and twenty pounds respectively.

Full directions for making accompany each can.

"This soap will work its way into every Laundry, Bathroom, and Kitchen in the United States."—Providence Journal.

No family should be without Butterworth's Chemical Soap, as it is not only the best but cheapest soap in use.—Boston Journal.

Small diseases the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above-mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever affected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females, treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures.—Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief.

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the fangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make their cases and remedial agent, and their authenticated by a Notary Public. The imperiously command their publicity, and their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of those who may be unfortunate enough to be afflicted, where a permanent relief of their obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the recovery of his health. Borne down by the symptoms incident to the vicious practices of passion in youth; depressed in body and mind to perform even the most trifling duty imposed ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of sicians, who at first regarded my disease as of portance—but, alas! after a few weeks, and in stances, months of their treatment, I found, to my able horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms more alarming in their torture; and being told my disease being principally confined to the brain would be of little consequence, I despaired of my health, strength, and energy; and as a last with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, examining my case, prescribed some medicine instantly relieved me of the dull pain and head. Encouraged by the result I resolved to immediately under his care, and by a strict his directions and advice, my head became ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of body on the slightest alarm or excitement, and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of in others, the incapability to study, and want of the frightful, exciting, and at times pleasurable night followed by involuntary discharges, have peared; and in fact, in two months after having the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life— but a short time ago I contemplated to end hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it offer this testimony to the merit and skill of and recommend him to all who may stand in cal advice, being assured by my own experience under his care a radical and permanent cure will be
